Recognizing Champions

The Webb County Commissioners Court presented a plaque to the JB Alexander High School Cheerleaders in recognition for being awarded the NCA Senior and Junior High School National Champion Title for the 6th consecutive year. The Court congratulated the team for all their hard work and dedication as well as for representing the best that Laredo has to offer for these last six years.

AgendaQuick

Webb County was visited by Dean Dickinson of Destiny Software to be trained on the new AgendaQuick software that will soon be implemented. The new software will eliminate the need for paper and allow quicker submission of agenda items. Those wishing to learn more about the software and its impact on Webb County can contact Melinda Mata or Betty Ortiz at (956) 523-4622 or (956) 523-5916.

WBCA

Representatives from the Washington’s Birthday Celebration Association visited the Commissioners Court to extend an invitation for the upcoming WBCA events. Along with presenting the Commissioners Court a commemorative frame, the WBCA representatives invited the whole community to join in the annual festivities. A full calendar of events for the celebrations is available at <http://www.wbcalaredo.org>.

Javier Gonzalez

The Webb County Commissioners Court and 341st District Court Judge Rebecca Palomo presented a special award of recognition to Mr. Javier Gonzalez for being awarded the “Officer of the Year” Award by the Texas Supervision Officers Sub-Committee. Mr. Gonzalez is a supervision officer at the Webb County Probation Department. The entire Court thanks Mr. Gonzalez for his dedication, efforts, and tireless commitment to Webb County, his department, and the public.

Computer Donation

Webb County Commissioners Rosaura “Wawi” Tijerina and John C. Galo held a press conference to accept a donation of 50 computers from United Day School for use in Webb County Community Centers. Board of Directors President, Mr. Juan Canavati, representing Unite Day School, joined the Commissioners. “We’re elated about the donation of the computers for our community centers,” said Commissioner Tijerina, “A computer is a tool that is necessary in order for them to enhance their education.” Commissioner John Galo further elaborated, stating, “The new technology which the kids will have access to will enhance their school experience, enhance their horizons and allow them to make a bright new start.
